

Yankees Bow to White Sox—Dodgers Lose to Pirates Cubs Defeat Giants in Tenth Inning

Meusel Homer, With Three On, Fails to Win

Mays Has 2 Bad Innings and Chicago Evens Series With Huguen: Falk Stars at Bat

By Charles A. Taylor

The duel of the ups and downs which is being fought by our Yankees at the Polo Grounds was continued yesterday and the Downs scored another touch. All of which being translated into baseball jargon means that the White Sox captured the fourth game of the series, thereby making the count in games won 2 to 2. The score of yesterday's encounter was 5 to 4. The final contest of the series will be played this afternoon, after which the Yankees will hit the long trail for Philadelphia and points in the mid-west.

Two bad innings in which Carl Mays, the New York pitcher, was found for nine of the six hits garnered from the under-handed artist brought defeat to the erratic Huggers. And yet Mays was not wholly to blame, for a frightful mix by Aaron Ward with an easy double play in the fifth was chiefly responsible for the four runs the White Sox collected in the second inning.

At the bat Ward tried his best to make up for his delinquency, securing three singles in four chances with the willow, but Aaron's teammates were unable to help him along in the good work.

The Yankees did all their damage to the curves of Mr. Wilkinson, the Sox twirler, in the third inning, when the bases full and two out, Bob Meusel drove the ball into the left field bleachers for a home run.

Falk, the clever youngster who covers left for the Chicago nine, started the visitors on the highroad to victory by opening the second inning with a single to center field. Sheely popped a fly over second. Ward hesitated for an instant in going after it, and then when he did get his hands on the ball dropped it. Had the catch been made Falk would have been caught off first easily, as he had taken a long lead. Mostil was hit by one of Mays's twisters and the bases were filled.

Lees politely popped to Peckinpaugh, but Wilkinson bounced a double off the shin of Walter Egan and Falk and Sheely scored. Mostil taking third. Johnson hit to McNally, who made a fine stop, and Mostil was run down by Egan. Wilkinson going to third on the play. Johnson stole second and Mulligan walked, again filling the bases. Eddie Collins singled to center and Wilkinson and Johnson tallied.

At this one point, Aaron Ward, Mays singled to left. Miller also hit safely to the same field. Peckinpaugh forced Miller at second. Ruth walked and all the sacks were inflated. Meusel then homered, driving the ball into the left field seats and the score was tied.

The tie lasted until the sixth inning, when the Sox with the irrepressible Falk again leading the way put over the run that won.

First center for three bases and scored on Mostil's single to right. What's the use of telling how Manager "Midge" Hughson tried to start the ninth by sending up "Chicken" Hawks to bat for McNally? Nothing happened. The old ball game was "in."
